

Know the Ropes?

Planning a sailing holiday or a bit rusty on your sailing skills.....

Has it been a while since you sailed or do you want to know what this 'sailing lark' is all about?

Why not spend a day 'brushing up', or refreshing your memory covering the basics of navigation, knot tying and sail setting or simply improve or learn some sailing skills.

Join us at Viking Mariners for a day where we will help you improve your skills, all under the supervision of our qualified staff. Let us know what you would like to cover and we will tailor the day to suit your requirements.

Build up your confidence for either a flotilla holiday, bareboat charter or just have a taster day of what the world of sailing is all about.

Call or email now and discuss your day with our friendly, helpful and knowledgeable staff.

Price £155 per person including lunch.

Group discounts available.
